Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Hi!

I just wanted to take a few moments to comment on the proposed settlement to the Microsoft Anti-Trust case.

The proposed settlement is not sever enough, there is no real punishment for Microsoft included in the settlement, it does nothing to ensure that Microsoft does not continue to abuse their monopoly.

Microsoft obviously feels the same way, as shown by their recent attempt to expand their monopoly into the education market (one of the few markets they do not have a monopoly in).

Please do not approve this settlement..

Thanks,
